

Name: _____

Date: _____

48 and 2 - REQUEST TO REASSESS

REMEMBER: Failure is not falling down, but refusing to get up.

Oops! You are not meeting the standard...yet! You have two school days (48 hours) to turn in this request with your original assessment attempt and proof of your three (or more!) relearning activities attached. Once you submit this request and the evidence you now understand the concepts, we can work together to schedule your retest opportunity during T.L.T. or before or after school within the next two weeks.

Title of Assessment: _____

Date of Original Test: _____

What I still need to work on:

Why I didn't meet the standard the first time:

Three activities I did to improve my understanding of the standard(s):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

I have worked hard to improve my understanding, and I request the opportunity to retest this standard.

Your Signature: _____

Date: _____

Parent Signature: _____

Date: _____

Here are some suggested activities to improve my understanding of the standard(s):

Math: Mr. Webster See Mr. Webster to determine the appropriate activities for reassessment. Activities may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Get extra practice work from Mr. Webster.• Go back in your text to the guided practice problems at the beginning of the chapter and work through them.. Review the original assessment. Make up your own problems and solve.• Look at similar problems and solve them.• Watch related videos and try practice problems on Khan Academy.	Science: Mr. Duggan <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Go over your assessment, make corrections.• Use study guides, related activities/labs, and readings.• Review with classmates, parents, and/or Mr. Duggan.• Make an appointment at available times (afterschool or TLT) with Mr. Duggan to review material.
ELA: Mr. Beaumier See Mr. Beaumier to determine the appropriate steps and activities for reassessment. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Establish an understanding of what you need to do to “meet” the standard. (You may need to have Mr. Beaumier help you with this if the feedback given was not enough.)• Look over the feedback from original assessment (or project) and make suggested corrections/revisions.• Turn in the revised project or schedule a new assessment within 2 weeks of receiving the original.	Social Studies: Make an appointment with your Social Studies teacher to determine the appropriate activities for reassessment. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Go over original assessment (or project) to determine any missing pieces that can be completed for reassessment.• Look over the feedback from original assessment (or project) and make suggested changes on the next assessment (monthly current event).
Allied Arts: Make an appointment with your Allied Arts teacher to determine the appropriate activities for reassessment. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Go over original assessment (or project) to determine any missing pieces that can be completed for reassessment.• Look over the feedback from the original assessment (or project) and make suggested changes on the next assessment.	